

Bringing History to Life

with Mary-Eileen McClear

Date: Sunday, November 13, 2016

at The Button Factory

25 Regina Street S., Waterloo, ON N2J 1R8

12 noon–3:30 p.m.

Do people and events of the past intrigue you? Are you a storyteller, a writer, or simply a lover of history? If so, join Mary-Eileen McClear as she shares her methods for finding, crafting, and telling historical stories. Expect to explore ways to peer into the past and bring it to life in an authentic, engaging way.

Mary-Eileen McClear, a storyteller for more than 30 years, is the founder of the Baden Storytellers' Guild and The Story Barn. She takes delight in ferreting out stories based on real people in times past.

Fee: $35

Register before Monday, November 7th
by phoning Derek Brisland 519-577-9128

Mail cheques to Baden Storytellers Guild
c/o 167 Golflinks Drive, Baden, ON N3A 3N8

